GLOSSARY

Total Investment Charge (TIC) is the sum of the Total Expense Ratio (TER) and the Transaction Costs (TC).

Total Expense Ratio (TER) is the global standard used to measure the impact that the deduction of management and operating costs has on a fund's value. It gives you an indication of the effects that these costs have on the future growth of your investment portfolio. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. Also, the current TER may not necessarily be an accurate indication of future TERs.

Transaction Costs (TC) is a necessary cost in administering the fund and impacts fund returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of fund, the investment decision of the investment manager and the TER. Calculations are based on actual data where possible and best estimates where actual data is not available. Standard Deviation (STD Dev) is a statistical measure of the dispersion of returns for a given security or market index.

Sortino Ratio measures the risk-adjusted return of an investment asset, portfolio or strategy. It is a modification of the Sharpe ratio but penalizes only those returns falling below a user-specified target or required rate of return, while the Sharpe ratio penalizes both upside and downside volatility equally.

Max Drawdown is the maximum loss from a peak to a trough of a portfolio before a new peak is attained. Max drawdown is an indicator of downside risk over a specified time-period.

Sharpe Ratio is a measure for calculating risk adjusted return. It is the average return earned in excess of the risk-free rate per unit of total risk.
